20. COPYRIGHT COMPLIANCE: The British Federation of Music Festivals is now a signatory to the MPA Code of Fair Practice (revised for 2012) agreed between composers, publishers and users of printed music. As such specific permission has been granted regarding photocopying music as follows:

Adjudicator Copy: A person performing a work at our festivals in front of an adjudicator may make ONE copy for the adjudicator provided that the performer has already purchased his/her own copy and that the copy made is retained and destroyed by the adjudicator immediately after the festival. A copy must be marked with the following "Adjudicator copy. Destroy after use"

Important: This permission only applies to the Adjudicator copy and all other copies used for the performance (e.g. by the performer and /or accompanist) must be originals.

This only applies to the music publishers who have agreed to adhere to the standards set out in the MPA's Code of Fair Practice (see full list http://www.mpaonline.org.uk/associated_companies).

Further clarification regarding photocopying:

In cases where larger print or separate pages to avoid difficult turns would be beneficial, a photocopy may be used provided that the original copy is also brought and any photocopied pages are destroyed after the performance.

Internet purchased music: If sheet music is printed from the internet for the use of the adjudicator or accompanist, the permission statement from that site must be provided to the festival with the printed copy.

No entrant may bring an unauthorised photocopy into the festival.
